The Braves lost 12 of 23 and Brooklyn took the flag by a game. So what? So the St. Louis Cardinals put the rap on Milwaukee 10-1 last night, sweeping a twogame set and trimming the Braves' lead to 61/2 games - with Burdette failing to go the distance for the fourth consecutive time.

With Buhl sidelined at least until this weekend with a sore shoulder, and Gene Conley (an added starter this year) stopped winless in six straight starts, the Braves' Philadelphia at Pittsburgh staff has managed only six com-Cincinnati at St. Louis plete games in the last 22. Brooklyn handed Robin Roberts his 19th defeat - the most he ever has lost at Philadelphia; and the Pittsburgh Pirates trimmed the New York Giants again, 4-2. The Cardinals, faced with an almost impossible task in pursuit of the Braves with only 21 games remaining, breezed in behind the four-hit pitching of Sam Jones. The big righthander fanned six and walked only one while winning his 11th.

The Redbirds, who came from 81/2 games behind once before this season, but needed 27 games to do it, got rolling with three in the fifth that chased Burdette to an DAO eighth defeat.

The dry spell has seriously afpastures and corn crops across the state. Four counties Berks, Bucks, Montgomery and Chester, have taken action to secure federal disaster aid as a result of the two month dry period. While citing the beneficial aspects of the dry spell on small game Benett also warned there can be harmful effects later.

"The short term prospect is excellent," he said, "but there can be serious aftermaths."

"A lot of natural food for the animals fails to mature as a result of dry weather. Certain weed seeds vital to keeping the game healthy are not produced."

He said the net effect could be winter in which there was a large supply of game and a short supply of feed.

As for large game Bennett said the drought apparently has not hurt present food supplies. He indicated the long range effects of the dry weather could be the same for large game as for small game. .An additional bad effect of the drought may be to make fields and woods fire hazards during the hunting season Santa Fe, New Mex., was found-

Every experience means more when it is shared. When father, mother and children go to church together they are sharing a beautiful experience. When they sing the songs of the gospel, read the Scripture, listen to the sermon, unite in prayer, they are adding to the joy of being together. When they open their hearts to God and pledge allegiance to Him, family life is strengthened. The "togetherness" reaches out to include fellowship with others.

Young people who grow up in the Church, who have a truly Christian home, are blessed with a tremendous advantage. They have learned to work and live with other people for the glory of God and the advancement of His cause. There is strength in the very thought of uniting in work and worship.

Together-what a difference it makes! Does your family go to Church together?

Church Of God, New Oxford

Moses had Aaron, Paul had Timothy, and Jeremiah had Baruch, Many on influential preacher and orator has a Baruch - an assistant pastor, a parish secretary, or a lay member who quietly assumes responsibility for the routine matters of a busy parish. Gifted men often have their complement in an exceptionally understanding

Jeremiah and Baruch worked at another period of national crisis, for the final years of the kingdom were coming to a close. Josiah's sons were weak kings and failed miserably. Jeremiah had the unpleasant task of speaking God's words to a deaf and unrepentant nation He realized the awful doom to which the nation was coming. Without Baruch upon which to trust and rely, Jeremiah's life would have been much more dif-

Took Down Prophecies

Baruch took down all of Jeremiah's prophecies dictated to him under God's direction. This was for a written record to be read aloud to the people. The following year (in Jehoiakim's reign) Baruch read them publicly on a fast day as Jeremiah was debarred because of his previous outspoken prophecies about God's anger with Judah. Both the prophet and his secretary hoped that the people would listen to Baruch, turn back to God, and be spared His punishment.

But a near tragedy faced the intrepid team and would have crushed a less courageour pair. The king was so angry he took the precious scrolls on which the prophecies were written, cut them up piece by piece and burned them in a brazier (charcoal-burning stove). And so under God's direction again Jeremiah dictated all his prophecies over again and many more. Jeremiah even had sympathizers among the princes for some had tried to persuade the king not to burn them. After the deed was done, the foolish king ordered Jeremiah and Baruch to be seized

Fortunately God hid these men from their enemies and preserved them for His work. Baruch came a distinguished family and could have lived his own life but he chose to serve God's most Christlike prophet. For more than 20 years he was with Jeremiah - at his side during the siege at Jerusalem, dragged off with him as a captive to Egypt, and a survivor in Judah after the second captivity. 3 Special Qualities Baruch is noted for three special qualities - faithfulness, courage, and humility. His faithfulness is shown by the way he stuck to Jeremiah in misfortune. While fugitives from the anger of the king the morale of prophet and secretary must have been at low ebb, realizing that the work they had done had been destroyed. But Baruch never raised a single objection when Jeremiah gave him a fresh scroll to write. He believed in the prophecies as firmly as Jeremiah himself and set himself to the task. Baruch was courageous when he obeyed Jeremiah's bidding to read the prophecies to the people for he was jeopardizing his own life After finishing this assignment, he was warned to flee for his life A few of Jeremiah's enemies even accused Baruch of being the mastermind of these prophetic teachings which had proved so unpopular

The humility of Baruch is worthy of note, for he was content to live and work in the background without sharing the limelight. He deserves the promise of our Lord who said. "He who humbles himself will be exalted.'

Through Baruch's pen much of the prophecy of Jeremiah now in the Bible has been preserved. The Apocrypha contains a book credited to Baruch and the sixth and dependability provides a vocational pattern for all generations.

She said yesterday, in criticizing Sun Oil Company, York 8-2274 a previous statement on the subject by Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, that she will propose opening the sessions to the press when the agency meets Sept. 19. And, she predicted that other Democratic would support the proposal. Gov. Leader and Mahany have previously issued statements favoring an end to closed sessions of the board which precede the regular meetings. Last week the GSA opened the regular meeting to the press for the first time. Since then newsmen complained to the governor that the open session was merely a "rubber stamp" of decisions taken at the closed meeting.
